

Copyright Agreement

This is the copyright agreement for Advanced Cross Stitch artists. It should protect both the artist and our site.

My name is _____ (artist) and I am the authentic copyright owner of the artwork that was sent to Jennifer Beam of Advanced Cross Stitch.

I am allowing her to convert my artwork into patterns to be sold on her website, Advanced Cross Stitch. I am granting her exclusive pattern rights to this effort and understand I can use my artwork for any other purpose, but nobody else will work with the artwork to make any cross stitch or diamond painting products.

I understand that this permission is for a minimum of 5 years once the pattern has been created. I will need to request the removal at this point otherwise assumed sales may continue. However, either of us can remove images not yet worked on at any point. There is a $20 fee to remove pieces completed before the 5-year mark

In return for the pattern rights to my artwork, I will receive a minimum of 30 percent commission paid via PayPal or Venmo for the sale of each PDF pattern containing my artwork. Jennifer will also not use the artwork for any purpose other than patterns.

I also understand that occasionally patterns are given away as a promotion for the site. I agree we may use charts containing in these promotional events.

I also understand that I am responsible for any tax obligations due because of these commission payments.

The PayPal address or Venmo account at which I can receive this payment is
